Press release no. 27 / 2016

In Imola, the third round of the Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth, with Marcos Siebert and Mick Schumacher in pole position

A clear sky and a high air temperature for two qualifying rounds at the Enzo and Dino Ferrari racetrack in Imola. In pole position the Argentine Siebert of Jenzer Motorsport and the German Schumacher of the Prema Power Team

Imola (BO) 27/05/2016 – The fastest of all on Friday 27 May was Mick Schumacher, first in the second qualifying round in 1'44"662 (the round that defines the starting grid of Race 2). Marcos Siebert will instead be taking pole position in Race 1, thanks to the time of 1'45"235 achieved in the first round (that defines the starting grid of Race 1).

- Behind Siebert, in Race 1, will be his teammate Job Van Uitert, Ye Yifei of Kfzteile24 Mücke Motorsport, Mick Schumacher from the Prema Power Team and Lorenzo Colombo of BVM Racing. In sixth place is Diego Ciantini of Jenzer Motorsport, ahead of Diego Bertonelli (Bhaitech), Juri Vips (Prema Power Team), Giuliano Raucci (Diegi Motorsport). Ian Rodriguez (DRZ Benelli) closes the top ten.
- As anticipated, Race 2 sees Mick Schumacher in pole position. Beside him in the front row will be Diego Bertonelli, followed by Marcos Siebert, Ye Yifei, Lorenzo Colombo, Raul Guzman (DR Formula), Job Van Uitert Devlin De Francesco (Kfzteile24 Mücke Motorsport), Juri Vips and Jaden Conwright (Vincenzo Sospiri Racing)
- Tomorrow's programme sees Race 1 starting at 12 p.m. You can see the full results of the qualifying tests on the acisportitalia.it/F4 website.
