Press Release Number 51 / 2017

Pirelli the official tyre supplier for Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth for the 2018 and 2019 seasons

The Italian Manufacturer won the tender held by Acisport Italia

Roma 20/11/2017 – Pirelli has been confirmed as the official, sole tyre supplier for the Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth, continuing a relationship that began with the birth of the championship back in 2014 in the first edition of the series.

- From both a sporting and technical viewpoint, Pirelli's engagement in the Italian F.4 Championship powered by Abarth is consistent with the strategy of supporting young drivers and giving them the opportunity to gain experience with tyres that have similar characteristics to those that they would eventually go on to experience in the next formulas in their career.
