VESTI IS THE ABSOLUTE PROTAGONIST OF THE WEEKEND AND WINS RACE 3

Frederik Vesti conquers two victories and a second position thanks to speed, concentration and an almost perfect weekend

13/05/2018 – Race 3 and it is once more Frederik Vesti (Van Amersfoort Racing) to be the fastest at the start, overtaking poleman Enzo Fittipaldi (Prema Theodore Racing), in a rolling start on humid track that dries up during the race. In the first few laps Fittipaldi tries to stick to Vesti, but then is also overtaken by Olli Caldwell (Prema Theodore Racing), that will finally be second with only 0.337 from the first, while Toby Sowery (KDC Racing) is third at the photofinish (delay of only 0.113).

In the Rookie Trophy it is once more Gianluca Petecof (Prema Theodore Racing) to be first of the race (fifth general position), in front of Petr Ptacek (Bhai Tech Racing) and a great Umberto Laganella (Cram Motorsport).

In the general standings it is still Enzo Fittipaldi to be first with 93 points, while Leonardo Lorandi (Bhai Tech Racing) loses distance with 81 points. Third is definitely the protagonist of this racing weekend, Frederik Vesti, who has 68 points without having participated to first appointment in Adria.

In general standings of Rookie Trophy Gianluca Petecof is more and more in advantage with 135 points, followed by the only driver at the moment who seems to be a possible threat, Petr Ptacek, with 135 points. Third is Marzio Moretti (BVM Racing) with 54 points.
